GLORIOUS LIST OF NEW BOOKS!

—FOR—

Musical Societies, Choirs, Singing Schools, Sabbath Schools, Academies, &c., &c.

Oratorio of Joshua,

BY HANDEL.

Price in Cloth, $1.25; Boards, $1.; Paper, 80 cents; with liberal discount to Societies for quantities.

For some strange reason, this fine Oratorio, equal in power to many others, has been almost unknown to American singers. Its recent rendition by the Handel and Haydn Society of Boston was a success, and it will, no doubt, now take its place among the classical works in constant practice.

People's Chorus Book,

For Conventions, Societies, & Classes.

Price $1. Per Dozen, $9.

An admirable selection of the best Glees and Part Songs. In glancing over the pages, one is tempted to pronounce it "the best" Glee Book. That, however, is too much to assert, but it certainly is "as good as the best" of previous publications. Among the attractive titles may be mentioned "You stole my Love," "The Owl," "Chosen One," "Beifry Tower," "Silent Night," "Thy praises, Autumn," and "When Allen-a-Dale went a hunting." Smart, Sullivan, Pinsuti, Macfarren, Barnby, Gage, and Leslie are a portion of the composers. The Music is for mixed voices.

The Salutation.

New Book of Sacred Music, by L. O. EMERSON. Price $12 per Dozen. $1.38 per single copy.

"Salutaria," says the collegian in commencing his well known Latin oration. Prof. Emerson has for some years united his labors with those of a distinguished Western compiler. The result was undoubtedly good, but he now appears alone, with a sense of greater freedom and ease, and the present Salutatory ushers in a new and doubtless successful era.

The SALUTATION is a book of about 350 pages. Beginning, as one naturally does, at the end, and allowing the leaves to slip through the fingers, we first notice a dozen pages packed with the always indispensable congregational tunes. Next, we pause a moment to hum over the few beautiful chants. Next, in backward order, we come to a mass of new and choice Anthems, Hymn Anthems, Motets, Sentences and the like, a very rich collection that will be eagerly sought after by those needing new opening anthems or "Voluntaries." Then we begin to encounter the last Psalm Tunes, whose varied metres always render them favorites with new singers, and then a multitude of Common, Short and Long metres, many of which are destined to be the special favorites of choirs. Still retrograding, we come to the easy new glees and four-part songs intended for Singing Classes. These are all attractive and fresh. The whole book commences with 50 pages of the "Rudiments," which are clear and sufficiently comprehensive.

This is a meagre synopsis of a fine book, which is expected to repeat the successes of the "Harp of Judah," "Choral Tribute," and other works of the same author.

THE ENCORE.
